

BUY/SELL IN CANADA

Purchase Transactions over $50,000 CAD in Gold, Silver, Platinum or Palladium via Branch Network (Canada Only)

Effective March 5, 2018, the sale of precious metals (bullion/coin/certificates) to a non-Scotiabank customer is no longer permitted.

Precious metal certificates previously sold to non-Scotiabank customers are still allowed for redemption at any Scotiabank branch. For redemption of coin/bullion, non-Scotiabank customers should contact their own financial institution.

Transactions over $50,000 CAD require advance notice with the transacting Scotiabank branch. Please review the information below detailing requirements prior to purchase:

Identification	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• ScotiaCard• One (1) piece of government-issued photo I.D. and• Social Insurance Card
Advance Notice	Minimum 24 hours
Source of Funds Verification	Verifiable documentation is required to validate the original source of the funds. Note: Required documentation may vary.
Pick-up/Delivery The safety and security of customers and Bank employees is paramount and will be taken into consideration prior to proceeding with the transaction.	In cases of large order requests, the client is solely responsible for the pick up/delivery of the metal and may be required to sign a liability waiver at branch discretion.
Storage	Safety Deposit Boxes are available for customers. Please consult your local branch for weight restrictions.

NOTES:

The above applies to residents of Canada.

For further information, contact your local Scotiabank branch.

For Non-Residents, please contact your local Scotiabank branch for further requirements.

Scotiabank is not responsible for any injury or loss to customers upon leaving branch premises.

Scotiabank reserves the right to request additional information or documents if appropriate.

We also reserve the right to refuse any transaction that does not meet requirements.
